LONG SHOTS AT HARLEM.

The warm weather, the first of the season, brought out a large gathering to Harlem yesterday. The betting was heavy. Surprises were the order of the day and long shots nobbed up in three of the races.

Lady Schorr attempted to concede twelve pounds to Trinity Bell in a one and one-sixteenth miles race, but lost in an exciting drive by a head. Woods rode the filly with poor judgment and made his run too soon. At that had he put up his usual vigorous finish at the end Lady Schorr would probably have won. He thought he had Trinity Bell beaten at the last sixteenth and grew careless, and although the filly was tiring fast she should have prevailed at the end. Brutal, unless he was put in for an exercise gallop, is not within two weeks of a good race, being hopelessly outrun from start to finish.

Belle of Minco with Jockey Doss almost falling out of the saddle scored in the first race at odds in some books of 150 to 1. The filly came from far back and skinning the inside rail saved much ground. Sweet Billie ran away from such good ones as Harry Beck and Aladdin in the fifth race and at odds of 40 to 1, winning in a big canter.

Frangible awoke with a startle in the long-distance race and made his field look cheap. In his own kind of going at Hawthorne last week he was hopelessly beaten off. Braw Lad put up a good race in the sprint affair and won going away at the end after an early drive.

The track was dead and slow, but was drying out fast and will be fast today in case no rain falls. In the tile drained portion in the stretch dust flew yesterday, giving a striking illustration of the beneficial effect of the tiling.

Jockey Bowman was suspended for the remainder of the meeting by Starter Dwyer. He also imposed a $10 fine on J. Woods and Winkfield for breaking through the barrier.

The judges fined C. E. Brossman $5 for sending John Drake to the post in wrong colors.

THE SUBURBAN.

Racing at Gravesend will terminate next Friday and Saturday will be marked by the opening of the Coney Island Jockey Club's summer meeting at Sheephead Bay. The feature of the opening day will be the decision of the most famous of American handicaps, the Suburban. The present prospect is for a good field of starters with Mr. Belmont's splendid horse Ethelbert sure to be the post favorite. Concerning the race the Sun of Monday says:

"There will be a good field, but a number of popular horses will be absent because of unavoidable injuries. At present it is thought that the starters will include Ethelbert, Conroy, Batten, Standing, Prince of Melbourne, Alcedo, Sidney Lucas, Gulden, Charentus, Beau Gallant, Brigadier, King Bramble, Decatur, Bonhibert, Water Cure, Kamara, Bellario, Blues, All Gold and Alsike.

"Since Conroy's remarkable victory in the Brooklyn Handicap, the crack three-year-old has been a trifle lame because of stepping on a stone while galloping a couple of weeks ago. Trainer James Rowe was disturbed at the time, but Mr. Keene's colt has been getting well rapidly and last Saturday he was pronounced perfectly sound. In the Suburban Conroy's impost will include a ten-pound penalty for winning the Brooklyn, but this will enable Spencer, the regular jockey of the stable, to have the mount which will in itself be a big item in the calculations. Last Thursday Ethelbert worked a mile and a quarter in the seasonally fast time of 2:06. Up to that time his start in the Suburban was in doubt, but now it has all been cleared up. The noted son of Eothen—Maori will do some racing at Gravesend this afternoon, just to smooth off whatever rough edges there may be remaining in his physical composite. Turfmen are agreed that Perry Belmont's horse will be a big favorite in Saturday's big race and that he will carry an ocean of money to the post. Capt. S. S. Brown is confident that in Batten he has the winner. The horse has been preparing slowly during the spring and has not been seen in public.

"It is highly probable that Dick Roche's splendid colt Standing will be a popular choice. In the Brooklyn Handicap, on a muddy track, Standing ran third when it was generally conceded before the race that the going was not to his liking. If the track next Saturday is dry and fast, Standing, it is believed, will be a contender all the way, providing, of course, that he is properly ridden and meets with no accidents."

"Sidney Lucas has been racing steadily all the season without much rest. Of late it would appear that he has been going back in form rather than improving, so that though he is in well with 110 pounds, it is hard to figure him a dangerous factor. Mr. Mackay's Gulden has made only one appearance this year. That was in the Brookdale Handicap, in which the colt carried 114 pounds, six more than he will shoulder in the Suburban, yet his showing was a disappointment. For three-quarters of a mile he did fairly well, but after that he went to pieces and was passed by Carbuncle, Kamara, Sidney Lucas, Decanter and Zeus. August Belmont's Brigadier in the same race was just as poor and the experts figure that he has not the time to improve enough to have a look in on next Saturday. Old Decanter has been showing well enough to be regarded as an outside chance. In his work-outs, Decanter is said to have done fast time."

"Richard Croker's Beau Gallant so far has been the biggest kind of a disappointment. Last Monday he conceded weight to Dr. Barlow, First Whip and Alcedo and was nowhere. Again on Friday the colt was easily distanced by The Rhymers, Terminus and Herbert. Still there is room for improvement in the Suburban, even though he will be conceding weight to all except Ethelbert and Prince of Melbourne. The latter has been slowly tuned up at Brighton Beach and has displayed such rapid improvement in form that he will almost surely start. Kamara, with only 100 pounds, is thought to have a fine chance. The mare has been rounding into her old shape, though in both of her races she has finished second to Carbuncle. Kamara is good in any kind of going and game to the core. Alcedo has done just enough public racing to attract the attention of those who watch the improvement of thoroughbreds closely. Blues was in better trim when he raced after Commando in the Carlton Stakes than at any previous time this year. King Bramble, Alsike and All Gold have been racing steadily, and do not cut much ice in the general figuring."

THE NANTURA YEARLINGS.

The American Horse Exchange sold the Nantura, Ashland and other Kentucky yearlings at the Brooklyn race track on May 30. Purchasers and prices were as follows:

Bay filly, by Rossington—Marjory; J. K. Smith.....	$200
Bay colt, by Rossington—Famine; James Harrison.....	275
Bay colt, by Patton—Diana; W. Phillips.....	100
Chestnut filly, by Ben Strone—Lizzie McCabe; G. Straus.....	325

Time, 12%, 23%, 35%, 48%, 1:01%.

Winner—B. f. by Kantaka—Lady Pepper. Went to post at 2:30. At post 13 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Par Excellence, off running, scored a lucky victory, although a fast and promising filly. Rossignol broke slowly and incapably handled, was best and closed like a whirlwind at the end. Sweet Clover, flatfooted at the start and carried wide on the stretch turn, finished strongly, but had scant chance from the outset and can do much better. Buzz got a lucky break and showed a fine burst of speed. Fontenix was prominent to the last furlong and has been well tried.

Scratched—25059 Miss Hastings, 111. Overweights—Poison, 1 pound. Par Excellence, show, 1 to 2. Rossignol, show, 2 to 1. Sweet Clover, show, 2 to 5. Musidora, show, 1 to 2.

Time, 25, 49%, 1:14%, 1:41%, 1:48.

Winner—B. g. by Domino—Royal Gem. Went to post at 3:10. At post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. The Regent and Alfonso both beat the gate and fought it out closely from start to finish. Both are thoroughly game and finished strongly. Himself appeared to be a contender on the stretch turn, having been under restraint throughout, but suffered from bad handling in the driving finish. Advocate, off poorly, made up ground and ran a very fair race. Sweet Lavender was very rank and poorly handled. She was choked for the first three quarters and had nothing left when called upon in the stretch.

Scratched—25020 Water Color, 120; 25820 Dublin, 110. The Regent, show, 2 to 5. Alfonso, show, 1 to 3. Himself, show, 3 to 5. Sweet Lavender, show, 2 to 5.

Time, 11, 23, 34%, 47%, 1:00, 1:09%.

Winner—Ch. g. by St. Leonards—Prohibition II. Went to post at 3:45. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second the same. Outlander, off well, waited on Glennellie to the stretch where superior jockeyship and a good horse won decisively at the end. Glennellie displayed brilliant speed on the last track and ran the best race thus far shown by her. Sadducee was poorly ridden and lost ground on the turns but was going well at the end. May W. was a good horse in the stretch and finished strongly. Katherina broke slowly and went wide but made up ground throughout thereafter. Biff will be heard from among lower class ones.

Scratched—22164 Ashes, 105; 25576 Sky Scraper, 103; 25162 Mintage, 99; 25860 Malden, 96; 25755 Jile Greenwood, 94; (25715) Trigger, 112.

Overweights—Katherina, 4 pounds; Biff, 4. Corrected weights—Outlander, 114. Outlander, show, 2 to 5. Glennellie, show, 3 to 5. Sadducee, show, 7 to 10. May W., show, 7 to 10.

25898 FOURTH RACE—5-8 Mile. 2-year-olds. Selling. The Hanover Stakes. $1,000 added.

Time, 12, 23%, 35%, 48%, 1:01.

Winner—B. c. by St. Maxim—Frances S. Went to post at 4:20. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Francesco far outclassed the field and is evidently a good one. Rightaway was well handled and favored by his light weight. Laodice ran in surprisingly improved form, closed a big gap and was going great guns in the last furlong. The Dancer is a speedy colt, but was used up in racing with such a good one as the winner. Oom Paul and Lockett hardly ran their races, at that their forte is mud. Misleader appeared to be a contender on the stretch turn, but was bumped and carried wide and quit badly in the stretch. Carroll D. was shut off early and put out of business. Scratched—25895 Rossignol, 97; Graden, 97; 25824 Silver Chimes, 94.

Overweights—Francesco, 1 pound; William H., 2. Francesco, show, 1 to 3. Rightaway, show, 2 to 1. Laodice, show, 8 to 5. Oom Paul, show, 3 to 5.

JOCKEY CLUB PROCEEDINGS.

A meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club was held at the Gravesend track Saturday afternoon. Those present were August Belmont, H. K. Knapp, F. R. Hitchcock and Andrew Miller. Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., was appointed steward to represent the Jockey Club at the Coney Island Jockey Club's summer meeting at Sheephead Bay. Trainer John McCauley and Jockeys Robert King and John Johnson were reinstated to all privileges under the rules. The following licenses were granted:

Trainers—George Campbell, P. Clay, R. Carr, J. B. Ferguson, J. A. Kyle, John Lyman, J. H. Morris, P. Meany, E. A. McGarry, P. C. Murray, G. W. Nixon and P. D. Williams.

Jockeys—Melvin Brien, C. Coombs, J. Coylie, Kenneth Force, Richard Holcomb and Joseph Scherrer.

The Executive Committee of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association also held a meeting at which William C. Whitney, J. H. Alexandre, J. G. Follansbee and Dr. J. O. Green were present. The application of J. R. Beard for the reinstatement of the horse Charagrace was granted. The applications for the reinstatement of the horses Salesman and Kasala for steeplechases and hurdle races were referred to the stewards of the Jockey Club, with a recommendation that they be granted. The Rhode Island Jockey Club received permission to change its racing dates to Thursday and Saturday, September 5 and 7, respectively.

Winner—B. f, by Tenny—Maxine Elliott.
Went to post at 4:50. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving. Gertrude Elliott nearly fell on the first turn but recovered quickly and a skillful ride brought her victory in the last stride. Double Dummy put up a speedy and game race and finished strongly after being badly bumped in the last sixteenth. Alard ran a good race but was probably a trifle short. He is a very consistent colt. Latson was pocketed and shut off throughout and finally hopelessly panned in on the rail through the entire stretch. Alsike closed a gap. Sailor King, running very easy to the stretch, was crowded in the last sixteenth. Tyr Shena was coming very fast at the end and closed an immense gap from a poor sendoff.

Scratched—25713 Lucky Star, 10; 25509 Glade Run, 10; 25713 Knight of the Garter, 93.

Winner—Ch. g, by Watercress—Lena's First.
Went to post at 5:25. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving. Water Cure closed with a mighty rush at the end and was lucky throughout. Toddy, off slowly and compelled to go around the field on the first turn, ran into a bad pocket in the last three-eighths and was pinned in on the rail in the last eighth, but got through in the last fifty yards. He should have won easily and showed marvelous speed throughout. Margravate ran a fast and game race and acts like a good horse over a distance. Wax Taper, off poorly, was a good horse, but badly messed about. Cyrano, big and high, will likely develop into a stake colt this year and ran a grand race for his first time out. Gulden and Vitellus both displayed fine bursts of speed, but failed signally in the stretch.

Scratched—25898 Alfonso, 106; 25899 Alard, 94; 25755 Jills Greenwood, 89.
Water Cure, show, evens. Toddy, show, 3 to 5. Margravate, show, 2 to 1. Wax Taper, show, 4 to 5. Gulden, show, 1 to 2.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the number of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.

Winner—B. c, by Balgowan—Cornet.
Went to post at 2:31. At post 14 minutes. Start fair. Won driving and going away. Baldo has always shown speed but an inclination to run out. The change of boys from Golden to Woods helped him. He came around his field wide at the turn and won with lots left. Clarena ran a capital race for a first out. Precisely's mouth is so sore he has to be gingerly handled. Phonolite showed fine early speed.

Baldo, show, 2 to 1. Clarena, show, 4 to 1. Precisely, show, out. John Storm, show, out.

Went to post at 3:40. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Cogswell, much the best, was beautifully ridden. Saline ran right to her mark. Plunkett messed Diaz all about the track. He was bumped at the first turn and allowed to drop out of it. Syncopeated Sandy has not been going to his New Orleans and southern circuit mark here. He showed speed today, but stopped as if short.

Went to post at 4:10. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a hard drive. Titus a good jumper and best on the flat, seemed a bit short of work. He was all out at the finish. Colonial Dame ran a much improved race, is as yet short of work. Zufallig was eased to his fences and ran well on the flat. Artemus had good speed, but was almost stopped to take each jump. He was poorly ridden all the way. Eva Moe does not like weight. She was ridden on the outside of the track. The boy seemed afraid of others falling. Very Light went to post lame and ran as if broken down.

Went to post at 4:47. At post 3 minutes. Start fair for all but Kaftan. Won in a hard drive. Little Tommy Tucker was beautifully handled by Gough, taken inside on the rail through the bunch and saved a lot of ground. Vedas came like a wild horse at the finish and would have won could Henderson have held him together. The Caxton finished strong. Deponan ran a poor race. He likes a soft track best. Harry Pulliam had no speed. Prestome ran a dull race.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 6 minutes. Start excellent. Won driving, but going away on the end; next four driving hard. Braw Lad swung wide in the stretch and lost some ground, but made it up in the last eighth and finished stonily. John Drake's race was a beauty. He never had clear sailing until the spread of the field on the stretch turn and then he closed resolutely. Doss palpably threw the race away on C. B. Campbell, who, with any kind of a ride could not have lost. The boy looked frightened when Braw Lad came up and stopped riding. Chenango was stopping at the wire. Winner—Ch. g, by Fonso—Miss Nannie.
Went to post at 3:35. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won very easily; second easily after a long drive. Frangible awoke with a start and showed in shocking contrast to his last performance in going to his liking. He made his field look cheap, though he was allowed to get away too far by Coburn on El Caney. El Caney was easily the best of the others.
Scratched—25779 Zack Phelps, 90.
Frangible, show, 4 to 1. El Caney, show, 1 to 3. Azim, show, 1 to 2.

25886 FOURTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. 3-year-olds. Turf Congress Special. Purse $1,000; $150 to second; $75 to third.

Winner—B. f, by Rossington—Famine.
Went to post at 4:10. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive. Trinity Bell's gameness stood her in good stead in the last sixteenth and she outgamed Lady Schorr in the closing strides. She was cut off by the Lady just before stretch entry but recovered and came on again. Woods' brilliant finishes on all of Schorr's horses shown here this year was lacking. Although Lady Schorr was tiring and swerving in the closing strides there was little or no energy in Woods' riding in the closing strides of the race. Gaheris was outrun the entire journey. Jiminez cracked after showing well for five furlongs. Brutal was extremely short of any kind of a race and could not run a little bit. The going was against him.
Overweights—Gaheris, 5 pounds; Brutal, 2.
Trinity Bell, show, 2 to 5. Lady Schorr, show, out. Gaheris, show, 8 to 5.

25887 FIFTH RACE—5-8 Mile. Purse $400; $75 to second; $25 to third. 2-year-olds. Allowances.

Went to post at 4:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Sweet Billie smothered her field and simply ran away with the purse. Almanzo was easily the best of the others. The field was strung out all the way. Harry Beck could not get up a gallop, and was beaten off from flag fall.
Scratched—23971 Lucien Appleby, 106.
Sweet Billie, show, 6 to 1. Almanzo, show, 2½ to 1. Our Jessie, show, 4 to 1. Harry Beck, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. f, by Pardee—Espana.
Went to post at 5:10. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won rather handily; second easily. Reseda was well ridden and made her run at the right time. Refugee fell out of the contest at the head of the stretch but came again and finished resolutely. It was the best race he has run this year. He got off flying. Ecome hung in the last eighth where he looked to have a chance. Patroon showed fairly well for six furlongs.

Scratched—25858 Little Elkin, 94; 25813 Hosi, 111; 25743 Ed Adack, 94.
Refugee, show, 2 to 1. Ecome, show, out.

Winner—Ch. g, by Buckmaster—Grisette.
Went to post at 2:10. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Ringmaster ran a good race, showing remarkable improvement over his recent form. San Augustine showed speed and finished stoutly. Devereux got off too badly to win and tired from having to make up so much ground. Pongo came strongly from the head of the homestretch. Harry Gwynn showed plenty of speed for three furlongs.
Scratched—25878 Beau Monde, 114; 25804 Sweet Voice, 97.
Overweights—Devereux, 4 pounds; Sam Dannebaum, 5.
Ringmaster, show, 2 to 5. San Augustine, show, 21 to 1. Devereux, show, 3 to 5.
